

Today's Metal Prices

NEW YORK QUOTATIONS

New York, Oct. 4.—Silver, 68 3/8c; lead, $7.00@7.20; spelter, $9.375@9.625; copper, $27.00@28.50.

Forty-sixth Year—No. 238.

Price Five Cents.

The Ogden Standard

FEARLESS, INDEPENDENT, PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4, 1916.

4 P. M. CITY EDITION

TWELVE PAGES

WEATHER—Utah: Partly Cloudy Tonight With Heavy Frost or Freezing Temperature; Thursday Fair.

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice, Ogden, Utah.

French and British Capture Strong German Positions on Somme Front

German and Bulgarian Forces Fall Back on Macedonian Line; Russians Capture Heights

Bucharest, Oct. 4, via London, 4:16 p. m.—The Rumanians have inflicted a further defeat on the Germans and Austrians in Transylvania, the war office announced today. The Teutonic forces were defeated in an engagement in the region of Fogaras.

Berlin, Oct. 4, via London, 4:12 p. m.—The Russians continued yesterday their heavy assaults on the Austro-German lines. Today's official announcement reports the defeat of the Russians by the troops of Prince Leopold.

The French on the Somme front are continuing their thrust northward on the Peronne-Bapaume road and have captured a strong line of German defenses between Morval and the St. Pierre-Vaast wood, Paris announces today.

The British, after stubborn fighting, have managed to expel the Germans from the town of Eaucourt L'Abbaye near the Pozieres-Bapaume road, where the drive towards Bapaume is now within 3 1/2 miles of its objective. London today reports Eaucourt L'Abbaye entirely in British possession.

Mystery still surrounds the numbers and movements of the Rumanian forces which have crossed the Danube into Bulgaria near Rahovo, in an evident effort to outflank the Bulgarian left wing and compel the retreat of Field Marshal von Mackensen from the line south of the Constanta-Tebernovoda railway. Sofia, in its current announcement, mentions these forces as comprising "considerable units," but records no contact between them and their Bulgarian foe.

Berlin assertion that the pontoon bridge on which the Rumanians crossed was destroyed is supplemented by Sofia's statement that the bridge was put out of commission "at the Dobrudja side by Austrian monitors."

What dispositions the Rumanians are making to keep up the communications of this force are not known. Bucharest has not alluded to the movement in its official statements.

The Bulgarians are either engaged in frustrating another Rumanian movement to cross the Danube or are attempting an operation of this sort on their own account. They crossed the Danube by their troops from the island of Makahafat, opposite Vidin, in the extreme northwestern part of Bulgaria, and the disposal by Bulgarian artillery of Rumanian forces on the other side of the river.

Reports from Sofia indicate at least a momentary lessening of the entente pressure on the Macedonian front.

Official despatches from Petrograd report a Russian success in the drive for Lemberg. The Russians have captured the heights south of Brzezany, 50 miles southeast of Lemberg, it is declared. Official reports from Berlin and Vienna have asserted that the Russian attempts to carry and hold these heights failed.

Sofia, Oct. 4, via London, 5:55 a. m.—The Rumanians who have invaded Bulgaria are described as "considerable units of troops" in an official statement today, which, however, does not report any clash between the Bulgarians and the invaders.

Francis Joseph Very Ill. London, Oct. 4, 4:12 p. m.—A report reaching Vienna from Geneva, as forwarded to London by the Exchange Telegraph company, says that Emperor Francis Joseph is confined to his bed with bronchitis and that his condition is causing anxiety.

Bulgar Forces Fall Back. Berlin, Oct. 4, via London, 4:22 p. m.—German and Bulgarian forces on the western end of the Macedonian front whose heavy fighting for several weeks, have again fallen back. Today's official statement reports the withdrawal of troops from near Presha lake to prepared positions.

Rumanians Withdraw Troops. Berlin, Oct. 4, via London, 4:20 p. m.—The Rumanian forces which crossed the Danube river between the Danube fortresses of Rustchuk and Turtukal have withdrawn hastily, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters, as the result of conflicting movements put into operation by Field Marshal von Mackensen, the commander of the forces of the Central Powers and their allies in Dobrudja.

King Rewards Aviators. London, Oct. 4, 2:45 p. m.—King George, it was officially announced today, has appointed Second Lieutenant Frederick Sowrey and Lieutenant Alfred de Bathe Brandon, both officers of the Royal flying corps, to be companions of the distinguished service order "in connection with their successful attacks upon enemy airships."

FIGHTING ON SOMME FRONT

Capture of Villages Described—Victories Close to German Fourth Line.

British Take 26,735 Prisoners and Engage Thirty-eight Enemy Divisions.

London, Oct. 4, 10:10 a. m.—An official statement issued here today gives details of the fighting on the Somme front after the advance of September 15, describing the capture of villages, including Combles, Guedecourt and Thiepval and reads:

"These victories brought our front line at more than one place within one mile of German fourth line positions west of Bapaume-Transloy road.

The enemy has fought stubbornly to check our advance and since September 15 seven new divisions have been brought against us and five against the French. The severe and prolonged struggle demanded on the part of our troops very great determination and courage.

"At the end of September the situation may be summarized as follows: "Since the opening of the battle on July 1 we have taken 26,735 prisoners and engaged 38 German divisions, of which 22 (about 350,000 men) have been withdrawn, exhausted or broken. We hold the half moon uplands south of the Ancre, every height of importance and so have direct observation ground to the east and northeast. The enemy has fallen back upon a fourth line behind a low ridge just west of the Bapaume-Transloy road.

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

RUSSIANS WIN THREE-DAY FIGHT

Gain Advantage in Incessant and Furious New Drive on Lemberg.

CROSS THE ZLOTA LIPA

Drive Austro-Germans From Heights and Bombard Military Establishments.

London, Oct. 4, 10:45 a. m.—After three days of incessant and furious fighting, the Russians are reported to have won a considerable advantage in their new drive on Lemberg from the south and to be threatening the important railway town of Brzezany, 50 miles southeast of Lemberg. Reuters' Petrograd correspondent says the Russians, under cover of artillery fire, forced their way across the Zlota Lipa river south of Brzezany, driving the Austro-German forces from the heights. The Russian artillery then advanced and began a bombardment of the camps, military establishments and suburbs of the town.

STRONG GERMAN DEFENSE TAKEN

French Complete Capture of Powerful Line Between Morval and Wood.

TAKE 300 PRISONERS

Germans Keep Up Lively Bombardment South of the Somme River.

Paris, Oct. 4.—A strongly defended German line of trenches between Morval and the St. Pierre-Vaast wood on the Somme front has been captured by the French, the war office announced today. Three hundred prisoners were taken.

"North of the Somme," says the official statement, "we completed the capture of a powerful line of German trenches between Morval and the St. Pierre-Vaast wood. We made about 300 prisoners, including 10 officers. South of the Somme there was a lively enemy bombardment of the region of Beloeil-Santerre. The night was calm on the rest of the front."

"Bad weather interfered with aerial operations on the greater portion of the front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

"In this action troops from every part of the empire and British islands have been engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans. Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of the offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the enemy's lines and have fought many battles in the air with hostile machine guns and many with enemy troops on the ground. For every enemy machine that succeeds in crossing our front it is safe to say two hundred British machines cross the enemy's front."

"The importance of the three months' offensive is not to be judged by the distance advanced or the number of enemy trench lines taken. It must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, materials and morale. The enemy has used up his reserves in repeated, costly and unsuccessful counter attacks without causing our allies, or ourselves to relax our steady, methodical pressure."

BRITISH TROOPS PUSH FORWARD

Bulgarians Launch Counter Attacks and Struggle for Newly Won Position Continues.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENT

Fresh Troops Brought Up by Enemy—Allies Inflict Severe Casualties.

London, Oct. 4, 2:14 p. m.—British troops yesterday morning pushed forward from their new positions near Karajakul, on the west bank of the Struma river in Greek Macedonia, and captured a part of the village of Yenikul, says an official statement issued by the British war office today.

The Bulgarians launched three counter attacks and fighting for the newly won position still is in progress. The text of the statement follows: "Salonki: Early yesterday our troops advanced from our new positions near the Karajakul villages and captured the part of Yenikul which lies to the south of Seres road."

"The Bulgarians attacked immediately but their first counter attack was broken up by our artillery fire. The second attack had no more success than the first and never approached closer than 1,000 yards. During the evening a third attack, preceded by a heavy bombardment, was made with fresh troops and fighting continues. Severe casualties were inflicted on the enemy."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

THOUSANDS SEE MILITARY PARADE

Railroad Excursions From All Parts of Texas Bring Crowds to El Paso.

LINE TEN MILES LONG

Holiday Observed in Honor of Twelfth Division of U. S. Army.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 4.—Thousands of people witnessed the parade of the Twelfth division here today. Railroad excursions from all parts of the state augmented the crowd for the military day celebration.

The division, headed by Brigadier General Henry A. Green and embracing troops from Texas, Illinois, Kansas and Wisconsin, and two regiments of the regular army, moved from Camp Wilson at 6 o'clock. Forming a line nearly ten miles in length the column passed along streets decorated with flags.

A holiday is being observed in honor of the event. Public schools, stores, banks and public offices are closed. Festivities will conclude with a banquet tonight at which General Funston and Green and more than 100 army officers will be entertained.

ULTIMATUM STORY DENIED IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Oct. 4.—Colonel John Barragan, chief of staff to General Carranza, will accompany Eliseo Arredondo, ambassador-designate to the United States, on the latter's return to Washington. According to government officials, Baron Barragan merely intends to take a vacation.

High officials deny a story sent out from El Paso that General Garcia was coming in the Straits of Dover, according to a dispatch to the Bolognese Figaro. The dispatch says news of the disaster was received by wireless, but that details are lacking.

ROYAL PAINTER DIES.

London, Oct. 4, 1:55 a. m.—Sir James Dromgole Lanton, president of the Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colors, died yesterday at his home on Haverstock Hill. He was born in London in 1840.

RED CROSS SHIP IS BLOWN UP

Paris, Oct. 4, 5:20 a. m.—A British Red Cross steamer blew up on Sunday morning in the Straits of Dover, according to a dispatch to the Bolognese Figaro. The dispatch says news of the disaster was received by wireless, but that details are lacking.

ROYAL PAINTER DIES.

London, Oct. 4, 1:55 a. m.—Sir James Dromgole Lanton, president of the Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colors, died yesterday at his home on Haverstock Hill. He was born in London in 1840.

ROYAL PAINTER DIES.

RUSS CONTINUE DOBRUDJA FIGHT

Gunboats on the Danube Bombard Left Flank of Bulgarian Army.

STUBBORN BATTLES

Germans Holding Positions in Galicia—Other Fierce Fights in Progress.

Petrograd, Oct. 4, via London, 2:30 p. m.—Russian troops are continuing their offensive against the forces of the central powers and their allies in the Rumanian province of Dobrudja, says the Russian official statement issued today. Russian gunboats on the river Danube have bombarded the left flank of the Bulgarian army near Rachova, which lies about 14 miles south of Tchernavoda. The text of the statement says:

"Dobrudja: Russian gunboats bombarded the left flank of the Bulgarian army near Rachova, which is beyond Tchernavoda, on the Danube."

"Our offensive in the region of Rachova, Tzopadin and Tervelkua."

"Russian and Teuton troops continue to fight stubborn battles in the region west of Bubno, near Chelov and Coryznia stubborn battles continue."

On the river Yenikva and at the source of the Zlota Lipa (in Galicia), the enemy stubbornly holds his position.

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

"Caucasian front: The situation is unchanged."

"During battles in the region of Dorna Watra (Rumanian frontier) our brave brigade commander, General Khoranova, who participated in the campaigns of 1877 and 1904, was seriously wounded."

"On the rest of the front artillery and rifle firing is proceeding at some points."

HUGH DORSEY TO BE GEORGIA'S GOVERNOR

Hugh M. Dorsey.

Hugh M. Dorsey has been named by Georgia Democrats for governor and will be elected in November. He won the nomination on the strength of the fact that he had successfully prosecuted Leo M. Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan.

Another factor which is disturbing the political situation is a breach of the political truce proclaimed at the outset of the war which has been made by the Saxon Socialists.

Meanwhile the chancellor and the reichstag leaders continue to discuss the points at issue behind closed doors on an even more confidential basis than before.

TICKETS FOR WORLD SERIES

Distribution Begins in Boston—Odds of 10 to 7 Bet on Boston.

Boston, Oct. 4.—Distribution of reserved seat tickets for the world's series baseball games in this city between the Brooklyn Nationals and the Boston Americans which will open on Saturday began today. Each of the 27,000 seats available for reservation was covered by applications, officials of the local club said.

First indications of the betting odds available today placed here were at odds of 10 to 7 on Boston. As yet, it was said, no Brooklyn money had appeared.

FIBER AND PULP MILL STRIKE ENDS

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 4.—After two months of bitter strife, during which many men were severely injured, the big strike at the Riverside Fiber and Pulp mill is over and the men are today returning to their former positions on the same conditions that prevailed before the walkout. About 2,500 men were affected by the walkout the only demand being the recognition of the union.

NEW JAP CABINET.

Tokio, Oct. 4, 6:45 a. m.—The emperor has requested Lieutenant-General Count Seike Tera